

Affiliate Compensation Plan

At Culture For Good, we pride ourselves on offering one of the most lucrative compensation plans in the health product's direct selling industry. Unlike all of those other companies, we believe in transparency and simplicity. There are no complicated point structures to calculate.

Here's how our straightforward and rewarding compensation plan works:

Direct Sales Commission	Earn 35% on Every Dollar Spent
	We pay our affiliates a generous 35% commission on every dollar spent by their contacts. There is no confusing point system or volume structure. If your customers spend $1,000 on products from our website, you earn $350. It's that simple.
Team Building Commission	Earn 10% on Your Team's Sales
	When you grow your team, all of those new affiliates are placed on your second level (Tier 2). You earn a 10% commission on orders placed by these affiliates and their customers. To qualify each month, you also need to purchase over $75 worth of products in the same calendar month.
Wholesale Commission	Commission for Bringing in Wholesalers
	Bringing in wholesalers helps spread the love far and wide. With this compensation structure, business owners get superior products at deep discounts (40% to 50% off), and you earn a great commission on each of their purchases: 10% on orders under $4,000 and 5% on orders over $4000.
White Label Commission	Commission for Bringing in White Label Clients
	If you know an influential person or business that's interested in selling our products under their own brand, then our White Label program is for you. We compensate you based on a sliding scale of 1% to 15%, depending on the specifics of the partnership. You're notified of the commission rate once the terms are negotiated and finalized. It can be a life-changing relationship! We handle all the heavy lifting and reward you for being the bridge to better health.

At Culture For Good, we are committed to changing lives through health, wellness, and education. We value everything our affiliates bring to the table and that's why direct sales is only one part of our affiliate program – team building, wholesale relationships, and white label opportunities can be just as important (and lucrative)!

Your ability to get our high-quality, natural products into the hands of others is what pushes our mission forward. We're dedicated to being a trusted, supportive, straightforward partner, and we look forward to growing our tribe with people like you!
